1. Why Should You Read This Notice?

This notice tells of your rights to share in the settlement and your ability to “opt out” of, or object to, the settlement. On August 28, 2018, Judge David I. Brown directed that you receive this notice as modified by Judge Jill H. Talley on November 8, 2018.

You have received this notice because records indicate that you are a Settlement Class Member in this lawsuit. The settlement will resolve all claims described below.

On ~~February 4~~ April 29, 2019, at 2:00 p.m., the Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing concerning the proposed settlement in Sacramento Superior Court located at 813 6th Street, Sacramento, CA 95814, Department 53.

2. What Is The Case About?

A putative class action lawsuit entitled Benita Tadena v. Guaranteed Rate, Inc. was filed on May 2, 2018 in Sacramento Superior Court, Case No. 34-2018-00232323 (the “Action”), alleging that Guaranteed Rate, Inc. (“GRI”) violated California law by failing to properly indemnify employees for their reimbursable expenses, failing to provide properly itemized wage statements, failing to timely pay employees upon termination, improperly calculating commissions and bonuses, and unlawfully deducting wages from employees.

GRI denies the allegations raised in the Action, and asserts that it did not violate the law and has no liability for any of the Settlement Class Members’ claims under any statute, wage order, regulation, common law, or equitable theory.

3. What Is This Notice About?

You may be entitled to receive money from a settlement that has been reached in the lawsuit. The Court must finally approve the terms of the settlement described below as fair and reasonable to the class. The settlement will affect all members of the class, including you. This notice will explain the terms of the settlement and the amount of money you may get.

You have been identified as a member of the Settlement Class.

5. Why Did Guaranteed Rate, Inc. Join In This Notice?

GRI does not admit to any of the claims alleged in the Action. GRI denies the allegations in the Action, and denies that it owes money for any of the claims alleged in the Action. GRI also believes that there is an enforceable arbitration clause in your employment contract. GRI is settling the Action as a compromise, in order to save attorneys' fees and costs and to avoid the uncertainties of litigation. GRI reserves the right to object to any claims made in the Action if for any reason the settlement fails. The Court file has the settlement documents with more information on the Action.

If the settlement is approved and you do not request to be excluded, you will receive compensation and will be forever barred from asserting the Settled Claims against the Released Party.
